Information Assistant (Digitisation)

Library and Archives

Closing date: 18 March 2019
Interview date: 4 April 2019
Vacancy reference: 7406
INTRODUCTION

The Information Services Directorate is organised into three main areas, IT Services, Library Services and The Borthwick Institute for Archives; all are designed to support the teaching, learning and research aims of the University and help to deliver the Information Strategy. As a Directorate we strive to provide the best student and staff experience via a strong customer focus and a commitment to continuous improvement. We value collaboration with colleagues both within the department and across the University. We are proud to hold, and have maintained, the Customer Service Excellence accreditation which we first attained in 2014.

One of the services we offer is a digitisation service. We provide digitised copies of key texts for course reading lists and accessible scans of library books for students with additional needs. We have a vacancy for a part-time Information Assistant to join the digitisation team and help us to work through the high volume of digitisation requests that we receive.

All staff share responsibility for and contribute to the success of the overall service. We want you to contribute to service improvement, working in an environment of mutual respect and openness. We strongly encourage all staff to engage in a process of continual review - both of their own work and that of colleagues; making suggestions for change to ensure that we continue to develop and enhance our services to meet the requirements of all our users.

This will also involve the setting of service standards and monitoring these to ensure our success. In developing and delivering services you will be directly contributing to both the Information Strategy and the University Strategy and as a collegiate organisation we welcome your contribution.
Main purpose of the role

The Information Services Directorate provides IT and Information Services to stakeholders at the University of York. Information Assistants are appointed to support the functions of York Minster Library, Collections Services, Customer Services and Digitisation as outlined in the job description. In the first instance individuals are appointed to a specific function(s) but opportunities for change arise and flexibility in moving across functions is expected.

The current vacancy is for a part-time Information Assistant to join the Digitisation team based in Collections Services. The purpose of the role is to provide digital copies of library books, and other materials as appropriate, for use by students and staff within the University.

The successful candidate will work 25 hours per week. Hours to be worked weekdays between 9am-2pm.

Key responsibilities

Information Assistants contribute to functional areas of service delivery; this particular role has responsibilities within the Digitisation function as detailed below:

- Providing a range of digitisation services for students, staff and external customers
- Using a range of equipment for the digitisation of material from the library and archives
- Configuring digitisation equipment according to the requirements of the job and the needs of the original document
- Documenting processes and procedures on the internal wiki pages

In addition to the role specific items above, all Information Assistants have the following responsibilities:

- to take responsibility for enquiries, logging, referring and where appropriate liaising with other staff in the department to ensure their effective resolution
- to liaise with external stakeholders and partners to ensure successful service delivery
- to build successful and productive relationships, alliances and partnerships within the Directorate
- to deliver communications to ensure that stakeholders in the University and external visitors are informed about Directorate services
- to represent the team within meetings in the Directorate as necessary
- to assist with projects and the development of services to support customer needs.
- to maintain a personal and professional development plan and take responsibility for your personal training and development

The above list of duties is not exhaustive and is subject to change.

The post holder may be required to undertake others duties within the scope and grading of the post as required by the Director of Information Services or Deputy/Assistant Directors.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Information Services Directorate is organised into three main areas, IT Services, Library Services and The Borthwick Institute for Archives all are designed to support the teaching, learning and research aims of the University and help to deliver the Information Strategy. More information about each of the Directorates areas is given below.

The Borthwick Institute for Archives
The Borthwick is one of the biggest archive repositories outside London. Founded in 1953, we have collected archives from all around the world, from the 12th century to the present day. Our users include academic researchers and a large number of public visitors, and our staff contribute to academic teaching in many departments across the University. Our holdings include the archive of the archbishops of York from 1225, hospital archives, political archives, business archives, family archives, archives of living writers for stage and screen, and a growing number of third sector organisations, such as Alcoholics Anonymous and the Yorkshire Wildlife Trust. Our media range from parchment, through rag-made paper to reel-to-reel tapes and digital files.

Library Services
The Library offers a wide range of services and extensive collections to support the Teaching, Learning and Research of the University with a strong focus on customer service and continuous service improvement. With over 1400 study spaces we provide a wide range of study environments including quiet reading areas, flexible group study, specialist research areas, bookable group and individual rooms and PC classrooms. The University Library complex includes the JB Morrell Library, the Raymond Burton Library for Humanities Research, the Borthwick Institute for Archives and the Harry Fairhurst building on the Heslington West campus and is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 362 days a year. We have a library available at the King’s Manor in the centre of York and we are responsible for running York Minster Library, under a partnership agreement with the Dean and Chapter.

The Library stock includes around one million physical items in addition to over half a million e-books, and over thirteen thousand print and electronic journals and databases. The Library is responsible for the institutional repository which holds over 81 thousand items and is part of White Rose Research Online, run jointly with the Universities of Sheffield and Leeds.

Our Help Desk offers support in person and virtually for library and IT queries, and through collaborative arrangements with the US we are able to offer access to library enquiry services 24/7. We value our relationships with the students, staff and researchers of the University and our Relationship Management Team provide a focus for this engagement, alongside development of digital literacy skills for all. We work closely with colleagues in IT Services to ensure successful take up of software such as Google Apps.

Our online repository (York Digital Library) is a key resource of our service delivery. It provides access to over 69,000 resources, which include images, past exam papers and Masters theses. Working closely with the Archives team, the Library has become involved in prestigious digitisation projects funded by national and international bodies such as the Wellcome Trust and Mellon Foundation.

IT Services

Information Technology is fundamental to the teaching and research success of the University as well to its day to day operations. ITS provides technology services to the whole University: staff, students and visitors. We aim to deliver services which are secure, reliable, easy to use and resilient. We strive to develop new services to meet changing needs and to keep pace with technological advances.
Founded on principles of excellence, equality and opportunity for all, the University of York opened in 1963 with just 230 students. In 2019 it is the home of more than 18,000 students across more than 30 academic departments and research centres. Since opening over fifty years ago, we have become one of the world's leading universities and a member of the prestigious Russell Group.

We are consistently recognised as one of the leading Higher Education Institutes and one of just six post-war universities to have appeared in the world top 100. We were rated 22nd in the 2019 Times & Sunday Times league table. The University of York has won six Times Higher Education (THE) Awards and five Queen’s Anniversary Prizes.

The University is proud of its association with Athena SWAN, holding multiple awards in support of gender equality, representation and success for all, with gold awards for Chemistry and Biology and a University-wide bronze award.

Of 154 universities that took part in the Research Excellence Framework (REF) in 2014, The University of York ranked 14th overall and 10th for the impact of our research. The University is consistently in the top ten UK research universities and attracts over £60m a year of funding from research alone.

Our vision is to make the University of York a world leader in the creation of knowledge through fundamental and applied research, the sharing of knowledge by teaching students from varied backgrounds and the application of knowledge for the health, prosperity and well-being of people and society.
Attractive workplace

Centred around the picturesque village of Heslington on the edge of the city of York, our colleges are set in an attractive landscaped campus. York enjoys a safe, friendly atmosphere with facilities including bars, shops, theatres and concert halls all within easy walking distance.

The University has undergone an unprecedented period of expansion and renewal since 2000. We have invested in twenty new buildings on the original campus and have completed the first and second phases of a £750m campus expansion. Our investment in new colleges, teaching and learning spaces, laboratories, research facilities and a new sports village mean there has never been a better time to join us.

During this period of change we’ve worked hard to retain our friendly, informal and collegiate atmosphere, which is important to our core values of inclusivity and interdisciplinarity.

We have a thriving international community and are committed to providing staff moving to York with as much support as possible through our Relocation Package and Welcome Officers.

The University is committed to promoting a diverse and inclusive community - a place where we can all be ourselves and succeed on merit. We offer a range of family friendly, inclusive employment policies, flexible working arrangements, staff engagement forums, campus facilities and services to support staff from different backgrounds.

THE CITY AND THE REGION

The City of York

Internationally acclaimed for its rich heritage and historic architecture, York’s bustling streets are filled with visitors from all over the world. Within its medieval walls you will find the iconic gothic Minster, Clifford’s Tower and the Shambles - just a few of the many attractions.

But York isn’t just a great place to visit - it’s also a great place to live and work. While nourishing a vibrant cosmopolitan atmosphere, York still maintains the friendly sense of community unique to a small city.

Visit www.visityork.org for more information on the city of York

Shopping, culture and entertainment

York boasts specialist and unique boutiques but also all the high street stores on its busy shopping streets. Alongside them you will find cinemas, theatres, an opera house, art galleries, a vast range of restaurants, live music venues and clubs. York is particularly renowned for its multitude of pubs and bars, from the modern to the medieval.

Housing and schools

Whether you choose to live close to the city, in one of the surrounding villages or further afield, you will find a wide range of housing within comfortable distance of York and the University. For families, the area has a range of excellent schools both in the state and independent sector.

Great location

York is one of Britain’s best-connected cities. Halfway between London and Edinburgh on the East Coast mainline, on intercity trains you can reach London King’s Cross in less than two hours and Edinburgh in two and a half hours. York is also well served by road links, and it is easily accessible from the A1, M1 and the M62.

For those travelling from overseas, Manchester Airport is two hours away and Heathrow Airport just three and a half. Flights from nearby Leeds Bradford Airport provide easy access to mainland Europe. By Eurostar from London St Pancras, Paris is just over six hours away.

Yorkshire

The Lonely Planet guide recently declared Yorkshire the third best region in the world to visit. There is something to cater to every taste, whether it be the rugged landscapes of the Moors or the Dales, the picturesque seaside towns of Scarborough and Robin Hoods Bay, the gothic architecture of Whitby or the vibrancy of cosmopolitan Leeds.
