Programme Administrator

Department: Education

Hours of work: Full time / 37 hours per week

Contract type: Open

Salary: Grade 4 / £23,487 - £26,341 per year
Introduction

An opportunity has arisen for an experienced administrator to join the Department of Education on an open-ended basis to work in an interesting and varied student-facing role providing a professional and efficient administrative service for students and staff.

The Programme Administrator will provide general administrative support for all matters relating to the teaching and learning activities of students registered on the Department’s taught and research programmes.

You will provide support for a wide range of processes from enquiry through to graduation, including admissions, maintaining student records, programme and module management, administration of assessments and servicing committees.

A professional approach to work, a willingness to help and a positive outlook are required in order to fulfil the requirements of the post. It is required that the post holder can establish good working relationships with academic and professional staff as well as students and external stakeholders.

Main purpose of the role

The Programme Administrator role provides professional and high-level support for all aspects of programme administration on the Department’s undergraduate and postgraduate programmes.

You will provide support to designated programmes within the department. However, the post holder will also be expected to work flexibly and collaboratively within the Programme Administration Team to support the Department’s full range of activities throughout the academic calendar. The post holder will be a key member of the team, reporting to the Student Services Manager and working closely with Programme Directors, Programme Leaders, the Chair of Board of Studies, Chair of Board of Examiners and external stakeholders, as required.

The post holder will be expected to actively participate in the Programme Administration Team and to work flexibly to provide mutual cover and support for other areas of work within the team as required. You will be expected to contribute to the development, improvement and implementation of efficient office administrative systems and will be committed to delivering an outstanding customer service to students, trainees, colleagues and academic staff.
